

Steely Dan will team up with Aimee Mann for a 2022 summer tour, Dubbed the “Earth After Hours” tour, with a stop at Jones Beach on June 29, 2022 - tix: http://STEELYDAN.jonesbeach.com

Steve Winwood is no longer able to appear due to unforeseen circumstances.
Steely Dan toured the US last fall, including a five-night NYC run where they played some of their classic LPs in their entirety, and they’ll be hitting the road again this summer, this time with Snarky Puppy & Aimee Mann. The “Earth After Hours” tour will play the classic rock hits. Steely Dan lead vocalist and keyboardist Donald Fagen has continued to perform live under the Steely Dan name since the band's co-founder, multi-instrumentalist and backing vocalist, Walter

Becker, died of complications from esophageal cancer in 2017.

Aimee Elizabeth Mann is an American singer-songwriter. Over the course of four decades, she has released more than a dozen albums. Mann was born in Richmond, Virginia, and studied at Berklee College of Music in Boston, Massachusetts. Aimee Mann's new album, Queens of the Summer Hotel, featuring 15 songs inspired by the book "Girl, Interrupted" written by Susanna Kaysen, is out now. The album bundle includes the Queens of the Summer Hotel vinyl LP, the 100% cotton Queens of the Summer Hotel t-shirt, and the limited Queens of the Summer Hotel retro-style travel bag, perfect for a weekend getaway.
