

Mary J. Blige is trading the big screen for the big stage and her “Rock of Ages” co-star neo-soul pioneer D’Angelo. Special Guest Melanie Fiona. MJB’s “Liberation” tour stops at Nikon at Jones Beach Theater on Aug. 19, with Blige focusing on last year’s “My Life II ... The Journey Continues.” <http://MARYJBLIGE.jonesbeach.com>

Blige will be touring in support of her latest release, 2011’s My Life II... The Journey Continues (Act 1). The singer’s tenth studio album is titled as the sequel to her 1994 album My Life. It debuted at #5 on the Billboard 200 after its release last November and has been powered by singles “25/8”, “Mr. Wrong” and “Why”. My Life II... The Journey Continues (Act 1) features an array of special guests including Beyonce, Drake, Rick Ross, Busta Rhymes and Nas. D’Angelo is reportedly working on his comeback album, though no release date has been announced for the singer’s third studio album and follow-up to 2000’s Voodoo. He recently made headlines by delivering his first stateside performance in over a decade as part of an unannounced appearance during the “Superjam” lead by The Roots’ Questlove at the Bonnaroo

Music Festival.
