

This fall Flo will be returning to the US for the third time in 2012, performing another string of 'Ceremonials' shows across the country including Jones Beach on September 15! <http://FLO.jonesbeach.com>

Support on the tour will come from UK's The Macabees and are set to open. CEREMONIALS, recorded at the famed Abbey Road Studios and produced by Paul Epworth (Adele) was released in the US on November 1st and debuted on the Billboard Top 100 Charts at No. 6. Last December, Florence + The Machine performed an unforgettable acoustic show at the Angel Orensanz Center in front of an intimate crowd for the re launch of the seminal MTV series, MTV Unplugged. The show aired on April 8th and the album immediately after, featuring tracks off her newest album and her multi-platinum debut Lungs. Josh Homme of Queens of The Stone Age made a special appearance to perform Johnny Cash's "Jackson", and Florence silenced the crowd with her own version of Otis Redding's "Try A Little Tenderness". Nominated for a Grammy for Best New Artist and an MTV Video of the Year Award with unforgettable performances on 2010's MTV Video Music Awards, the Grammys and the Academy Awards, Florence Welch is poised to cast her spell as she dances across US concert stages.
