Fueled By Ramen band Sublime with Rome — singer/guitarist Rome, bass player Eric Wilson, and drummer Josh Freese — have unveiled details for their summer touring plans for North America. The headlining run kicks off July 7(th) at Echo Beach in Toronto, ON and continues into August, with support on most shows from punk rock veterans Pennywise. Select dates feature support from Descendents.. With the release of “YOURS TRULY” — their first album of new music in over a decade — Sublime with Rome returned to the top of the radio charts with hits like “Panic” and “Take It Or Leave It.” A relentless touring schedule took the band all over the world, playing the new songs alongside old favorites. Last year, frontman Rome Ramirez released his solo debut EP, “DEDICATION,” which saw the talented singer / songwriter teaming with a stellar line-up of studio superstars — including Benny Blanco (Maroon 5, Ke$ha, Wiz Khalifa), Robopop (Gym Class Heroes, Lana Del Rey), and The Futuristics (The Lonely Island Feat. Justin Timberlake & Lady Gaga) — as well as Nate Ruess of fun. and Grammy-winning producer Jeff Bhasker (fun., Kanye West, Jay-Z) on the exhilarating title track. Rome is currently working on his debut full length.
