

3 Doors Down + Daughtry Unveil Dates for Summer 2013 Tour

3 Doors Down and Daughtry are having such a good time on their co-headlining tour run that they've extended it for a third leg. The newly revealed dates have a stop at Jones Beach on July

The two rock acts have spent the past few months touring together throughout the U.S. and on a World Tour that took them on a musical journey through Mexico, Dubai, Europe and Russia. The new shows will keep them stateside for the summer.

3 Doors Down and Daughtry seem to be having a blast together on the road. "We are looking forward to great summer touring with our friends in Daughtry," said 3 Doors Down main man Brad Arnold. "Everyone had so much fun on the last two legs that we had to add a third and hit some new cities and some outdoor sunshine along the way. See you on the road!"
