

Wiz Khalifa's an nual "Under The Influence" tour will feature Young Jeezy, Tyga, Ty Dolla $ign, Mack Wilds, Rich Homie Quan, IamSU!, Sage the Gemini, and DJ Drama - will round out the lineup for this summer's outing, which will kick off July 24th in Scranton Pennsylvania with a stop at Jones Beach on July 31.

Wiz Khalifa has successfully turned "Under The Influence" into an annual tour. While the last two installments were co-headlining ventures, with Wiz sharing the large print with Mac Miller and ASAP Rocky respectively, this year will see Wiz as the sole headliner— though there are still plenty of big names involved.

It's safe to assume that concertgoers and performers alike will be under the influence of a lot more than just music at this summer's Under the Influence of Music Tour. Even so, with the cast of characters set to perform, the music on its own should get fans pretty high... This year's installment seems ripe for sprinkles of shared set time. The artists on the bill have a handful of collaborations between them: Wiz was featured on Ty Dolla's "Or Nah"; Iamsu! was all over Sage the Gemini's album Remember Me; DJ Drama tapped Tyga for his single "So Many Girls"; and on Tuesday (April 22), Iamsu! released "What You 'Bout," featuring Wiz, to name a few.

Cameron Jibril Thomaz (born September 8, 1987), better known by the stage name Wiz Khalifa, is an American rapper and singer-songwriter. He released his debut album, Show and Prove, in 2006, and signed to Warner Bros. Records in 2007. His Eurodance-influenced single, "Say Yeah", received urban radio airplay, charting on the Rhythmic Top 40 and Hot Rap Tracks charts in 2008... Khalifa parted with Warner Bros. and released his second album, Deal or No Deal, in November 2009. He released the mixtape Kush and Orange Juice as a free download in April 2010; he then signed with Atlantic Records. He is also well known for his debut single for Atlantic, "Black and Yellow", which peaked at number one on the Billboard Hot 100. His debut album for the label, Rolling Papers, was released on March 29, 2011.[3] He followed that album with O.N.I.F.C. on December 4, 2012 which was backed by the singles "Work Hard, Play Hard" and "Remember You".
