

The Adventures of Kesha and Macklemore are going to be having some good old days next summer. The pair, who teamed up for the lighthearted nostalgia jam "Good Old Days" for Macklemore's Gemini album earlier this year, will be teaming up once again for a trek around North America in 2018 with a stop at Jones Beach on July 30! The Adventures of Kesha and Macklemore Tour, announced this morning (Dec. 11), will begin June 6 at the Ak-Chin Pavilion in Phoenix and proceed to 29 more North American cities until Aug. 5. The pair are using their tour for a good cause, too: $1 from every ticket sold will be donated, with Kesha donating her proceeds to Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network (RAINN) and Macklemore donating his to M Plus1, which advances racial and social justice through the M&RL Equity Fund.
