the Ride All Night Tour named after a track on his latest album, Rearview Town, will build on Aldean's last multi-city tour, the High Noon Neon Tour, and features two of country's fastest rising acts in support: Kane Brown and Carly Pearce will appear on each date. Aldean's longtime hype man, Dee Jay Silver, is also on the lineup.. Aldean's current single "Girl Like You" is the third off Rearview Town, following the two Number Ones "You Make It Easy" and "Drowns the Whiskey," his collaboration with Miranda Lambert. Brown, presently on his own chart-topping streak with a trio of hits, appears on a remix version of Khalid's "Saturday Nights." His latest single is the smooth "Good As You," which nods to Sixties soul. He performed the song Monday morning on Good Morning America.
