The tour is named after the country singer's hit single "Country On," released in 2022.

Bryan has been cranking out hits for over a decade, releasing his latest album "Born Here Live Here Die Here" in 2021. The "Country Girl" and "Play It Again" singer has also been a judge on "American Idol" since 2018.

"Artists get into the business to make music and perform it for the fans," Bryan shared in a statement announcing the North American trek. "Leaving it all out on that stage is what it's all about for me. I'm excited to support and have so many talented new artists along for the ride this year.
